

From Jim Wiltshire.

Hello,

Just wondering if you can point me in the right direction.

When the Vietnamese conflict was on, I somehow became a pen pal to one of the gentlemen over in Vietnam. I left home shortly after and lost his address.

He sent me a photo and I have the time on the back, but there is no name.

Do you know of a forum where I might be able to join and put this photo on and thereby someone may recognise him.

My husband and I go to Vietnam in a few months for a holiday and I would dearly like to contact this person as he was once there and we communicated.

I know he is not in Vietnam anymore of course, but wonder how his life has been in the past time.

Your help appreciated.

My name then was Melody Goulter and I lived at Jacksons Flat Via Tabulam NSW.

Warm Regards

Melody Goldsmith
