

This came into the Canberra VAN email and we thought it may be of interest to some of your members

Regards

Kim Daniells | Manager

Veteran's Affairs Network - Canberra

Department of Veterans' Affairs

T +61 (0) 2 6225 4602 | F +61 (0) 2 6257 1818

Seniors living in the Inner South who are interested in learning computer skills they may be interested in the following. These classes will only be small , no more than 6 people each with a computer.

Basic computer skills course for Seniors.

This course is for people with no experience on computers, are planning on buying a computer or have one they don't turn on.

You will learn the parts of the computer - keyboard, screen, mouse etc

Learn to play games, type and print a document, and basic internet and email.

Mondays 10-11.30am, starting 8 February 2010

Southside Community Services, 63 Boolimba Crescent, Narrabundah

Cost: $4.00 per week, including morning tea.

Computing for Seniors

So you know the basics, what's next? More skills and fun!

Tables, digital photography, formatting, USBs etc, Viruses and protection, mailmerge, excel and spreadsheets.

Tuesdays 10-11.30am, starting 9 February 2010

Southside Community Services, 63 Boolimba Crescent, Narrabundah

Cost: $4.00 per week, including morning tea.

For bookings or more details, please call Southside on 6126 4700

