

VV&VFACT Publication Policy

This policy has been developed by the Executive to enable the Webmaster to exercise sensible judgment that allows inclusion of robust but appropriate material without risking action from people genuinely offended, or rat bags in the general community, or in some ideologically driven government agency, or even in the VV&VFACT.

For example, to be eligible for inclusion, the material:

1. Should be directly related to the Golden Principle in the VV&VFACT Constitution.
2. Should also be consistent with the objectives of the VV&VFACT Constitution.
3. Should not contain any content likely to be unlawful (e.g. defamation, sedition, obscenity, pornography, or racial or gender discrimination), or to lead to legal action against the Webmaster or Branch, or likely will be found offensive by readers.

This Policy will help keep us all safe and 'on track', and also help avoid the distracting work we had in dealing with the recent correspondence from a disgruntled ex ADF Member.

As a consequence of this policy, any unsolicited email forwarded to VV&VFACT must comply with this policy.
